Sensory Water area

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Splash pad/ Water Sensory feature Benefits

- Splash pads serve as venues where kids can engage in the recommended sixty minutes of moderate to vigorous play everyday
- Splash pads meet the needs of all developmental levels and center around inclusive play.
- Providing zero-entry play areas and no standing water, splash pads add a safe and fun water feature to your park or community.
- Waterplay helps develop hand eye coordination for children

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

PARTF Timeline

- February 2, 2015
- Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. to the applicant's regional consultant at Recreation Resources Service (RRS). Only information received by the deadline will be accepted.
- July 2015
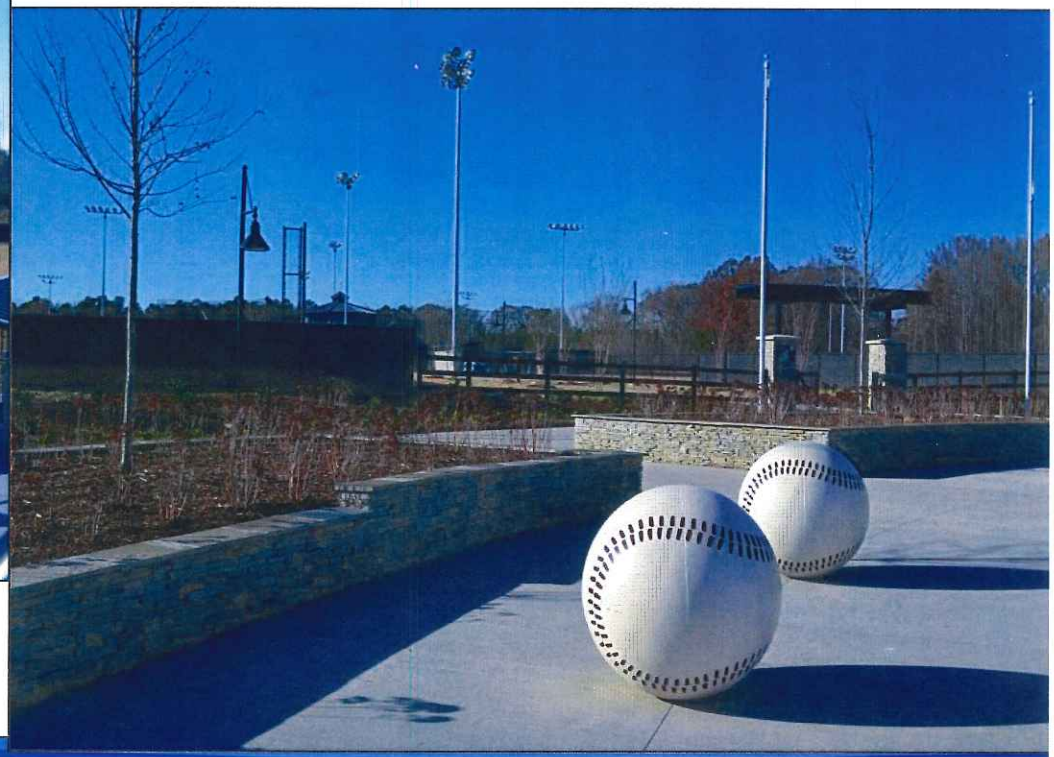
- The first meeting of the Parks and Recreation Authority to select grant recipients.

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Questions/Comments

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Crooked Creek Park
Grand Opening



INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Crooked Creek Park

- Opportunity for the community to come together and enjoy the park.
- This will continue to introduce our residents to the park and also serve as an unofficial start of summer.

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Crooked Creek Park
Grand Opening

- Saturday May 30th
  - 9am-12pm
- Fundraising Softball Tournament
  - Examples of possible teams:

-UCSO
-Hemby Fire Department
-Stallings Fire Department
-Mint Hill
- Matthews
-Stallings
-Monroe
-Waxhaw

INDIAN TRAIL
PARKS & RECREATION

Questions?